2 metal frame bunk beds... One is all red with a foldable bottom bunk (can either lay flat or fold up into a couch position) and twin size on top. Laying flat the bottom is full size... Can use futon mattress if planning to leave in couch position or go back and forth but I have a full size mattress that we used... Also have twin mattress for top bunk...

Other set is red blue green and yellow metal framed and twin size on top and bottom...

Have all the hardware for them both...Both in good shape we just haven't been using and would rather get rid of than just go to waste...
