I have this lovely Thomasville white sofa that is not being used. I got it from some high end lawyers I work for and well it doesn't go with the rest of the furniture i have. Seats three, is very comfortable no tears or stain in the fabric, It is an off white color but has a solid white cover on it and over each individual cushion for easy wash and stain prevention. The main cover does have a tear in the back but from the front you can not notice it. These sofas usually go for a couple thousand only asking 400 for it OBO. Please contact me if you are interested i need it gone asap.
