I have a real nice glass table that I am selling, the frame is made of metal and has a rustic brushed painted look to it, on the top there are tiles visible through the glass. I have not touched it up at all I really just never use it and it is kind of too big for my area. There are some minor scratches on the table just from normal wear and tear but it is still in very good condition.

It also includes 4 matching chairs also with the same rustic brushed paint look. The chairs are also cushioned the and they are in good shape, no rips or stains.

This isn't a cheap flimsy set, it is very heavy, I paid $649 for it 3 years ago.
