We purchased this beautiful marble-topped bar a few years ago from Ashley Homestore. It's a grey and white marble tile bar with an espresso wood finish. It has a 12-bottle wine rack, a glass rack with room for approximately 12 glasses and 3 shelf areas. There are three drawers in the top as well as a pull out cutting block. The chairs are leather, cushioned and very comfortable. There are a couple small dings in the front paneling and the chair corners have some chew marks but these blemishes are so minor they don't detract from the overall impressive impact of this handsome piece of furniture. The way it's situated in my house makes it difficult to get a good angle that shows off the back of the bar. Pictures don't do it justice you definitely need to see it to appreciate. Bring some muscle when you come to check it out because it is heavy! Asking price is $1000 obo but I am very motivated to sell so any reasonable offer would be considered. Please contact me with any inquiries or for further information.
