This is a NEW Hampton Bay (Style is from their Dakota Collection), 3-light vanity /bath/ bar light Fixture. It was purchased in November of 2016, from Home Depot, for $50. Home Depot still sells this light bar, in their stores and online. This light fixture has never been used and the box hadn't even been opened, until yesterday when I opened it to take pictures.

But when I pulled out the interior box, I inadvertently pulled out one of the little light bulbs, and broke it in the process. So whoever buys this light bar, keep in mind that you will have to buy one replacement G-9 bulb, which I think is about $3. The other two G-9 bulbs are fine. I was going to post this for $20, but since I broke a bulb, the price is now $15.

This is an attractive, understated light bar, with an art deco vibe to it. This light bar was on display when I bought it, and what appealed to me was that the 3 frosted glass shades look a bit like marbled glass, when it's lit up. (There's a subdued cloud-like pattern on the interior of the glass shades, which causes the lit exterior side to appear marbled). The metal portions of this light have a satin nickel finish. It measures 20" wide x 2.7" deep x 4.5" high. It uses 3) 60 watt G9 halogen bulbs, 2 of which are included. The manual is inside the box,
