In our garage we have a large butcher block. It is not perfectly square. I measured dimensions as 36" X 30" X 32-1/2".

You can't move it by one person.

I think this butcher block may have come from the Newhalem Commissory Store when my father retired from Seattle City Light. There used to be a meat department in the store.

Item is located in ROCKPORT, WASHINGTON 98283.
