Would you like free highspeed internet for the next 20 years? Nextlink Internet is looking for landowners outside of any city limits or HOAs who would be willing to lease a 15'x15' piece of property to stand a 150' tall internet tower. The landowner will receive a free 100 MBPS internet connection as well as all of the required equipment for the life of the 20 year contract. If you would be interested in being a Nextlink Tower Partner please follow the link below and submit your information to be reviewed. Be sure to check out our google reviews and our website, nextlinkinternet.com.
