I have had these rugs for about 8 years. They are in great condition however, my current color scheme doesn't work well with them. I paid $800 each when i bought them and would like to get at least $500 each. I have them currently rolled up and stored but i have posted a picture of the actual name of rug and the one listed NEW on a website. They retail around $1900.00+ each.
