Texas Solar Power Systems is a leading residential solar energy company with locations across Texas. Experienced solar consultants working out of our Keller, TX office provide FREE energy audits and solar panel system design (either in person or virtually). We review how much you're spending on power and how much you could save by going solar given specific factors of your home such as location, roof orientation and system design. Our expert solar consultants also review all the tax credits/financing options available & answer any questions related to your specific design. Then our TX licensed Solar panel installers handle the installation from start to finish. Our seasoned staff is eclectic and fun, and we keep up with the industry, so you don't have to.
