This light taupe/beige couch and chair are very comfortable and cozy -- I'm moving out of town, and won't be able to take them with me, but believe someone else may enjoy owning them! They make for a nice living room set. Given that they are used, I'm not asking much for them -- they have some wear and a couple minor stains on them. The couch has a fold-out sleeper inside, in case that interests you. Selling these two pieces as a set because they belong together :) Willing to negotiate on the price!
