Price:

selling the wall unit ONLY, not its contents in or on it. Bought this in 2003 while stationed in Germany, from an actual German furniture store (NOT Ikea). it is currently disassembled but this is what it looks like put together. has some wear and tear marks. we used the glass end as a curio cabinet, the other end as dvd storage, and the bottom cabinets for holding photo albums, bottom drawers for holding misc. books, and the middle drawer and cabinet for holding misc items. you would need about 85 inches in height and 85 inches wide of space for this unit.
