DICE LAUNCH DETECTOR*

Dice Launch Detection to aid in training the shooter on being consistent while honing toss skills. Dice launch needs to be the same every time. Same energy, release point and trajectory. Launch Detector will aid you in honing this skill. An electronic dice training observer taking the place of a human observer found at costly seminars. Return on Investment, ROI, over time usually is experienced. Device is portable and can be used most anywhere. Price is firm. Brand new.
