Im searching for a tutor that can come to my home a couple days a week for my 11yr old 6th grader son. They offer after school program but due to my work schedule im unable to pick him up. Math is what he is struggling with the most. This is an odd request but prefer a male (he seems to do better, because he doesnt have a male authority figure in his life, and he pays more attention) If interested please let me know and how much. Thanks in advance. Located in Center
