These are a brand new type of Catheter from Coloplast, They are called, Flex tip, Coude, they are extremely comfortable to use, if you have had uncomfortable experiences with catheters before, these would be the ones for you. They come in a box of [30] Thirty , which I believe normally sell for about $ 5.00 or more each, I will be asking $75.00 for a box of 30, which I believe would make that to be about $2.50 each. [I also have a good amount of the regular straight tip , 14FR, for $1.00 each.

I have another listing showing the same items, I tried getting the pictures , but would not down load, Please refer to pictures on other site.
