Price:

we just bought a brand new Serta gel memory foam mattress, thinking the king size would take up too much room. But we decided we need a king size, so we bought the exact same mattress in the larger size and now need to sell the Queen. It was $800 and it is not even a month old yet, and is in perfect condition. Oh and we are non smokers so it doesn't smell like cigarettes or anything!

We also purchased a $75 waterproof mattress pad that we will include with it. We cannot deliver it for you, but will gladly move it from our apartment to your vehicle.

It is made of 3" of gel memory foam. 3" of air channel foam. And 8" of High density support foam. We really do love it. Just needed the bigger size.

We are asking $550 for the mattress and cover. Make a reasonable offer!
