Great, hardly used laptop!

HP ENVY x360 TouchSmart

Nothing is wrong with it, just got it and realized I'm not much of a windows person, and honestly I don't like how it works, if that makes sense, it's just a personal preference, and I prefer apple products.

I got it about four months ago, and I barley use it, I just stick to using my iPad, lol, so since it isn't being put to use, I thought I would try to sell it to someone who could use it.

When I was looking into buying a computer/laptop I was looking for the best one to perform normal daily functions as well as a good computer for school work, and this is the one I was recommended, so if that's something you do as well, and also enjoy the windows set up, this would be a great computer for you.

Like I said, perfect condition, barely used. Nothing wrong with it, completely clean.
